EUROPEAN NOBLEWOMEN.

QUEEN ANNE, of England, was extremely fond of jewelry, and her face was adorned with many ornaments.

The dowager duchess of Sutherland was lately committed to prison for six weeks on sentence for contempt of court. She had burned some papers used in evidence in a trial concerning her husband's will.

The princess of Wales has, perhaps, invested almost as many jewels, as those in the kitchen maid. She drew with her own hand the plan for the pocket smoking case which the prince carries everywhere with him.

Princess Elizabeth left two hundred dollars with the manager of the Arlington hotel, Washington, to be distributed among the servants who served her and her party while she was at that home. They regard her as a princess from her hand to her finger tips.

POPULAR FALLACIES.

THAT a good appetite is always bliss.

THAT it is worth while discovering a new cure.

THAT treading on a velvet carpet offends the soul.

THAT calling it a landscape will improve a back yard.

THAT the poetic habit is an abomination and a snare.

THAT a taste for liquor is one of the symptoms of genius.

THAT it is easier to analyze a dumb than carbonic acid gas.

THAT encyclopedic knowledge can produce a five-cent cigar.

THAT cat mauls isn't strong enough to penetrate a brick wall.

THAT there's more science in safe-breaking than there is in poker.

THAT watches with the most expensive movements keep the best time.

THAT the man whose face is all gold cares much about the deacons'—judges.

A collection was taken up to fight the law in the courts. J. Fredrick Knott having been retained by the colored people. The speech was a calm, moderate argument and those who voted expecting to have no more colored people were disappointed. Mayor Whitson was present by invitation and he pronounced the meeting

There is no liquor sold at White Wash, the little village south of Grayburg, now. How Metcalf's law is being enforced in May and when application was made to the County Judge for a renewal a petition signed by several hundred people was presented requesting that no more liquor be granted at that place. This caused her to dry and the thirty-two year old woman is now "temperance."

A vacant tenement house on Fourth street, the property of Mr. J. W. Dan, of Santa Fe, N. M., was consumed by fire early Friday morning. The building was of little value and was no insurance. Just how the fire originated is not known, but the supposition is that some tramp carelessly dropped a match about the premises, setting the trash under the eaves on fire. The fire department was on time but too late to save the shell of a house.

The Black Pat tobacco factory on Jones Avenue is rapidly nearing completion. Some of the machinery has arrived and is being placed in position and the balance will be on hand in a few days. The factory will begin operations as soon as the building is completed and the machinery is placed in proper position for work.

CREAM OF NEWS.

The Canning Factory.

The gentlemen interested in the proposed canning factory met Saturday and ordered the preparation of articles of incorporation and opened correspondence with parties for the plant needed. The site was selected and the factory is now a certainty.

A Correction.

In our last issue we stated that Mr. C. Cantrell, of Crofton, committed suicide. It should have read J. C. Cantor. Nothing further has developed as a cause for the act of self-destruction. Deceased was a relative of Hon. Polk Canale, of this city, and was a gentleman of fine standing and influence.

A Chicken Tied Sentence.

Last Saturday Mr. W. M. West purchased five very fine chickens. The same night his house was broken open and the chickens disappeared. Sunday morning George Washington, an old colored man, was arrested and the fowls were found in his possession. He was brought before Judge Morrow yesterday and on a plea of guilty was given 30 days in the work house.

Died From Internal Injuries.

Last Thursday afternoon John Fleming, the twelve-year-old son of Mrs. E. J. Fleming, while playing at his home on North Main, fell and injured himself fatally. He was at the time carrying a large box on his head, which he was holding in some way resulting in his death Sunday morning. The remains were taken to the home of Mrs. Fleming for interment yesterday.

This Week's Forecasts.

Hicks says we may expect very warm weather the balance of the month. The highest temperature will be reached during our storm periods, with changes of wind and minimum temperatures between. This week look out for black clouds, with severe bluster and thunder, and local down-pours. Very warm, with storms 22nd and 23rd. From 20th to 30th, expect excessive heat, with very storm clouds. The rain fall during the month will be light, but there will be many local storms of wind, thunder and lightning.

Implement Man Murdered.

Mr. James M. Green, of this city, was badly hurt near Oakley Thursday afternoon last by being struck in the face with a large piece of iron. He has been supervising the location of an engine and thresher and was sitting in his buggy near the engine when the cylinder exploded. A heavy fragment struck Mr. Green in the mouth, knocked out several teeth and badly cut and bruising his face. He was rendered unconscious for a time and it was feared at first that he had received fatal injuries. He was taken to the home of his father, Mr. Thomas Green, near by, where he received prompt medical attention and is now getting on nicely.

Hoped His Sister.

George Porter, col., committed a rape on the person of his eleven-year-old sister, near Oakley, Friday. Porter worked in the neighborhood and coming home found his mother absent from the house and his little sister alone. The girl was being held by a colored man who was passing and he, assisted by Equine Marshall, on whom Porter had a grudge, forced the door and committed the villain as he was in the act of carrying out his purpose. Porter was bound and taken before Equine Brown, who held him over and he was taken to the Clarksville Jail. The robbery was a fair created great excitement and the find narrowly escaped lynching. He was most frightened and expressed his regret at being locked up for safe keeping. It is not now likely that a mob will interfere in the case and they will receive the full penalty of the law.

An Old Man's Horrible Death.

Monroe Rawlins, a colored man aged about 75 years, fell from a L. & N. bridge which spans Little River in the northern suburbs of the city Sunday night, receiving injuries from which he died Sunday morning. He had been in the city and was returning to his home a few hundred yards north of the bridge when he tripped his toe and fell a distance of about ten feet landing on his head. One thigh was crushed, an arm was broken and the old man also received internal injuries. His grudge against the L. & N. was so great that he was called and did all in his power to relieve his sufferings. About 10 o'clock Sunday morning the surgeon amputated the injured leg, but Rawlins only lived a short while after the operation. He was conscious until the last and was very anxious to see his wife and children, but died before they could reach him. He had been in the habit of walking the bridge to and from his work for some time.

Summer Weakness.

What that feeling, loss of appetite and general languor are known as, is being suffered by many away from Hopkinsville, like most of the country. Dr. C. M. Moore, manager of the L. & N. is generally called a trial and you will find the remedy of the celebrated medicine of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Sum, efficient says—Hood's Pills. They should be in every traveler's grip and every family medicine chest.

WHEAT THRESHERS.
